SVEEP awareness jatha ahead of LS elections

Special voter enrolment drive on Dec. 2 and 3 across Mysuru: DC

Mysuru, Nov. 24 (RK&BCT)- Months ahead of the 2024 Lok Sabha (LS) elections, the Mysuru District Systematic Voters' Education and Electoral Participation (SVEEP) Committee, the Election Commission of India, Mysuru City Corporation (MCC) and the District Administration have begun conducting voter awareness campaigns.

An awareness jatha was held this morning from Kote Anjaneyaswamy Temple till the Old Deputy Commissioner's Office where officers and students walked, making people aware of their democratic right and responsibility. After the last Assembly elections, this is for the first time that such a jatha was held. Today's jatha was supported by Rotary Ivory City.

The highlight of the jatha was the announcement made by Deputy Commissioner Dr. K.V. Rajendra that a special voter enrolment drive will be conducted on Dec. 2 and 3 across the District at booth levels. New voters can enrol their names and errors, discrepancies can be rectified at booths set up near their homes.

International yoga exponent from Mysuru H. Kushi, who is the SVEEP District Icon, seen flagging off the jatha along with ZP CEO K.M. Gayathri, who is also the Mysuru District SVEEP Committee Chairman and Deputy Commissioner Dr. K.V. Rajendra in city this morning. MCC Deputy Commissioner Somashekar and Senior Health Officer Dr. N.P. Venkatesh are also seen.

Today's jatha was marked by the participation of hundreds of students from JSS Arts and Commerce and Sheshadripuram College and NCC units. Inaugurating the jatha, DC Dr. Rajendra, who is also the District Electoral Officer, called upon voters to head to their nearest booth during the many special drives conducted by the SVEEP Committee ahead of the next elections. He also requested students above 18 years to enrol themselves in electoral rolls. He highlighted the importance of SVEEP and motivated students to cast their votes and advised students to spread awareness about SVEEP and special camps among their family members and friends.

"The message is about compulsory voting and ethical voting. Only if these two are exercised, we can root out electoral malpractices and at the same time make our future secure. The right to exercise one's franchise forms the cornerstone of any democracy. The essence of democracy lies in voting. The voting has to be done with discretion and with full knowledge of what's going on," he added.

Ahead of every election, the SVEEP Committee organises various initiatives to attract voters to the polling booth. Its multi-intervention programmes reach out through different modes and media to educate citizens, electors and voters about the electoral process.

Despite the well-intentioned efforts of the District Administration and the SVEEP Committee, urban voter apathy becomes evident in post-election analysis when the voting percentage is tabulated. The last elections in the three Assembly segments in Mysuru revealed low percentages, nullifying the extensive efforts. KR Constituency had the lowest voter turnout at 59.55 percent, while Chamaraja and NR Constituency recorded 61.05 percent and 61.43 percent, respectively.

The Nodal Officers are expected to collaborate with the Deputy Commissioners and Superintendents of Police to effectively manage the human-animal conflict, reporting their activities to the Principal Chief Conservator of Forests. Additionally, they are tasked with devising a comprehensive plan to prevent wildlife from straying into residential areas located in close proximity to forests.

EDITOR'S BOTTOMLINE

Amid growing cases of cyber fraud, Union Finance Minister Nirmala Sitharaman, on Thursday, said there is a need to build alertness among the people against this crime, as scamsters are generally a notch ahead in terms of using technology. "Unless we are able to build that alertness in the minds of people that I should not go by anything that is said on my phone…citizens are at risk," the Finance Minister said while addressing a tech event.

"The government as well as the Reserve Bank of India (RBI) have been doing periodic reviews to strengthen the system so that people are not duped by way of phone calls or SMS. But the people are getting trapped through random calls and SMS and losing money. People who game the system probably are one notch ahead of us in terms of using and misusing technology. On that, there is a lot of work required. It is a never-ending game because technology is such an animal that keeps moving and racing much ahead of you," she said and tried to allay concerns over data security. "On data protection, I can assure Indian citizens your data remains completely safe." On concerns over the misuse of data by account aggregators, the Finance Minister said, "They cannot hold data. They are just a pass-through. Neither the beneficiary customer nor the bank can sit on it through the account aggregator. They will deal with it only for the purpose of giving credit."

Sitharaman also underlined India's increasing global collaboration and co-operation in the areas of digital payments. She said the Indian government is likely to sign MoUs with several other countries for collaboration in digital technology. Such deals will benefit financial technology companies.

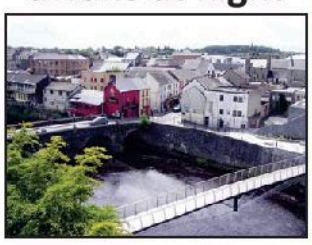
Doctors find live fly in man's intestines

Missouri: The American Journal of Gastroenterology recently published the bizarre case of a 63-year-old man who had a fly living inside his intestines. The man had shown up for a routine colon cancer screening earlier this year, and doctors at a Missouri hospital conducted a colonoscopy – a procedure where a camera is inserted into the intestines to check for any abnormalities. And that is exactly what the physicians found while exploring the patient's traverse colon – the area at the top of the large intestine – an intact fly that had somehow survived the gastric acid and was chilling inside the man's body.

Although no one truly knows how the fly ended up inside the man's intestines, it is a known fact that fly larvae laid in fruits and vegetables can sometimes survive our stomach acid and then hatch in our intestines.

Mysterious hum keeps residents awake at night



Omagh: The people of Omagh, a small town in Northern Ireland, have been complaining about a mysterious humming sound that can be heard at night and disrupts their sleep.

In recent weeks, the Omagh District Council has actively been trying to identify the source of a nighttime noise that several residents from all over the small Northern Ireland town have been complaining about. Unfortunately, all their efforts so far have ended in failure, leaving them with no other choice than to call in sound experts to solve the mystery. People "usually characterize it as a persistent buzz or hum" that differs from the sound of passing vehicles and that can only heard late at night, usually around 12:00 am – 01:00 am. While some have gotten used to it, others claim that it is interfering with their night sleep and demand that something be done about it.

VOICE OF THE READER

Plea to install traffic signal

Sir,

I have written several letters in this column seeking to install traffic lights signal at the junction of Hotel Red Lotus Suites located on Akka Mahadevi Road, JP Nagar. But no action has been taken till date. All my appeals have fallen on blind eyes and deaf ears. The authorities concerned are not bothered to address this problem.

It has been noticed with concern that there is a lot of uncontrolled vehicular movement at this junction. Also it is very difficult for pedestrians, senior citizens, ladies and children to cross the road at this junction.

Vehicles whiz past in all four directions, without a thought being shown by some rash drivers towards the lives and safety of pedestrians.

Quite a few accidents have taken place at this spot, resulting in injuries to pedestrians and damage to vehicles.

I appeal the traffic authorities to kindly take necessary steps to install a traffic lights signal, along with those for pedestrian crossings too, at the earliest.

English musical theatre at St. Lawrence Intl. School

Mysuru, Nov. 24- The word 'musical' always suggests larger-than-life live Broadway Shows of NYC. Whether a movie or theatre, many of us are unaware of its magic.

An English musical (one involving more than 230 children) was performed at St. Lawrence International School in Mysuru recently. It was a musical theatre, a form of theatrical performance that combines songs, spoken dialogue, acting and dance.

Through performing arts, children can examine and channel their emotions through narrative, music and movement. Participating in performing arts provides children the opportunity to express a range of emotions in a healthy, controlled environment. Learning how to express themselves through art will make it easy for them to creatively express themselves in other situations, be it in school, social gatherings or future job interviews.

The children performed a musical on Alice In Wonderland written by Lewis Carol. Auditions were held for all the roles they were interested in. Pooja Prakash Raj and Rajalakshmi Murthi trained the children for more than three months. Children across all grades (from Nursery to Grade 8) performed flawlessly at School Turf Ground. Those parents, who were not able to attend the event, could watch it on YouTube channel.

Police stall at Dasara Expo displays crime-fighting gear

Take a closer look at Police arsenal; Enjoy Police Band performance from 6 pm to 8 pm every day

Mysuru, Nov. 24 (MK&DM)- The Police Department stall at the ongoing Dasara Exhibition showcases a diverse array of articles and ammunition utilised by the Police to address crime and ensure the safety and security of the public.

The objective is to cultivate awareness among people and students regarding the actual weapons employed by different branches of Police personnel, such as crime, traffic and the Mounted Police to uphold law and order.

City Police Commissioner Ramesh Banoth inaugurated the comprehensive Police Department stall at the Dasara Exhibition Grounds on Wednesday. The Police are leveraging this exhibition as an opportunity to engage with the community and foster positive relationships.

Displaying weapons in a controlled environment enables the public to observe and comprehend the tools and equipment used by law enforcement, thereby promoting transparency and trust.

Firearm paraphernalia

The stall features the display of various items, including a 9 mm Glock 19 Pistol, Auto Pistol, Carbine Machine Gun, Joint Venture Protective Carbine, Colt Gun, AK-47, Trichy Assault Rifle, Calibre Rifle, INSAS (Indian Small Arms System) Rifle, Bore Pump Action Gun, multi-purpose knives, Tear Gas Gun, handcuffs, bullets of different sizes, walkie-talkies, communication sets, bomb detection equipment, no parking sign boards, dividers, road convex mirrors, wheel lockers and others.

Additionally, display boards encourage people to call emergency toll-free No. 112 in case of any emergencies, Helpline 1930 for cyber crimes and Child Helpline-1098. The stall also features a screen displaying video clips related to cyber crimes as part of creating public awareness.

The Department has made special arrangements to attract the public to the stall. The Police band will present a concert from 6 pm to 8 pm every day. The expo also provides an opportunity for visitors to see the horses attached to the Mounted Police. Overall, the stall offers visitors a chance to observe a wide range of Police ammunition, articles, and artillery.

According to the personnel manning the stall, it serves as an educational platform where law enforcement agencies showcase their equipment to inform the public about the tools and technology used in policing. This can help dispel misconceptions and provide a better understanding of law enforcement practices.

Awareness on cyber crimes too

Police Commissioner Ramesh Banoth emphasised that the stall features all types of ammunition used by the Police for tackling crimes and maintaining law and order. Noting that this year, the Department stall has undergone an overhaul, he stated that the stall provides insight into how the Police function and the ammunition and equipment they use.

Underlining that creating public awareness is the main focus of the stall, he mentioned that school and college students can visit the stall and learn about the functioning of the Police force. Highlighting the increased focus on cyber crimes due to advancements in technology, he stated that the stall is both educative and informative to the public, serving as a platform for the display of Police ammunition and armoury.

Ramesh further highlighted the special attraction this year, the daily performance of the Police band. He clarified that all the ammunition displayed in the stall are authentic ones used by the Police and not mere models. DCP M. Muthuraj, S. Jahnavi, Traffic ACP Parashuramappa, Karnataka Exhibition Authority CEO Rajesh Gowda, and other Police personnel were present.

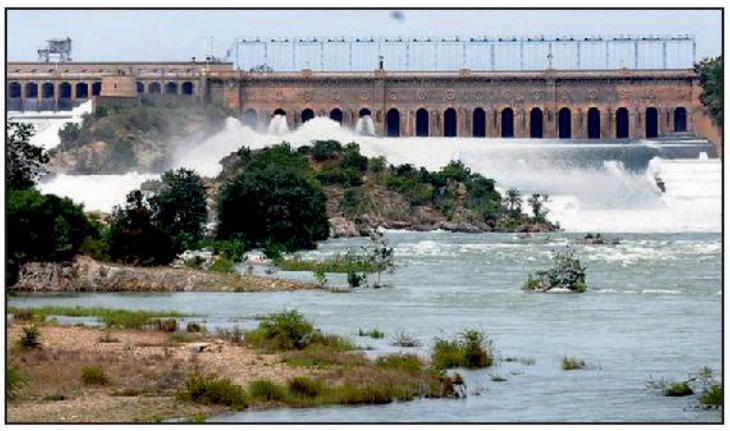
CWRC asks Karnataka to release 3,216 cusecs water to TN for 38 days

New Delhi, Nov. 24 (Agencies)- The Cauvery Water Regulation Committee (CWRC) has asked Karnataka to ensure the daily release of 3,216 cusecs of Cauvery water to Tamil Nadu. This water release is to be realised at Biligundlu for 38 consecutive days starting from Nov. 24.

The CWRC convened in New Delhi yesterday, emphasising that Karnataka must adhere to the prescribed flow volumes stipulated by the Cauvery Water Disputes Tribunal's award, as modified by the Supreme Court, during the specified period.

Following the CWRC's recommendation, the Cauvery Water Management Authority (CWMA) will make a decision regarding the release of water from Karnataka to Tamil Nadu. The CWMA is expected to convene a meeting imminently.



Earlier, Karnataka implored the CWRC to refrain from issuing further directives for water release from its Cauvery reservoirs. Karnataka asserted its incapacity to release any water to reach Biligundlu beyond what naturally flows in from the uncontrolled catchment area.

During the meeting, Karnataka explained its inability to release water to Tamil Nadu due to a 52 percent shortfall in its Cauvery Basin reservoirs. It highlighted that inflow into all four reservoirs in the Cauvery Basin had ceased, and the cumulative storage as of Nov. 21 was insufficient to meet irrigation, drinking and other domestic needs.

Citing India Meteorological Department (IMD) statistics indicating normal rainfall in Tamil Nadu since October, Karnataka expressed confidence in the satisfactory rainfall forecast for the Cauvery delta region below Mettur during the northeast monsoon season.

Karnataka argued that the kuruvai crop in Tamil Nadu had been harvested by the end of September, rendering it unnecessary for water. It also asserted that the samba crop had reached maturity and would be ready for harvest in the first week of December, suggesting that the neighbouring State might not require substantial water. However, Tamil Nadu insisted that Karnataka should release water at the rate of 5,000 cusecs for the next 30 days.

Mysuru, Nov. 24 (KS)- Following increase in youths violating traffic rules, the Mysuru City Traffic Police, who conducted special drives from Nov. 1 till Nov. 19, 2023 for defective number plates, fake number plates, triple riding and other traffic rules violations have registered a total of 179 cases on offenders besides imposing fines on them.

From Nov. 1 till Nov. 19 this year, the Police have registered 63 triple riding cases, 94 cases pertaining to defective registration number plates and 12 fake number plate cases. Cases have been registered under IPC Section 420 against those found driving or riding vehicles with defective and fake registration number plates.

In all, a total of 3,677 cases (1,713 triple riding cases and 1,964 defective number plate cases) have been registered this year.

City Police Commissioner B. Ramesh said that the special drives will continue and legal action will be taken against the violators.

In this backdrop, City Police Commissioner B. Ramesh inspected the special drive at Siddarthanagar yesterday evening and observed the checking of two and four-wheelers by the Police personnel besides guiding them.

Speaking to media persons, the City Top Cop said that the drives were being held in the evenings to put brakes to illegal activities and also for strict implementation of traffic rules.

Karnataka Government to withdraw approval for CBI probe against DKS

Bengaluru, Nov. 24- Coming as a big relief to Karnataka Deputy Chief Minister D.K. Shivakumar (DKS), the State Cabinet yesterday held the approval by the previous BJP Government to CBI to investigate a Dis-proportionate Assets (DA) case against Deputy CM D.K. Shivakumar was 'Unlawful,' thereby paving way for the Government to withdraw the permission granted by the previous BJP Government, to the Central Agency. Sources said that with this decision, the Government will withdraw the permission accorded to the CBI in this case.

Briefing reporters after the State Cabinet meeting here yesterday, Law and Parliamentary Affairs Minister H.K. Patil said "The sanction to handover the case to the CBI was taken after an oral direction from the then BJP Chief Minister B.S. Yediyurappa in Sept. 2019. However, the then Assembly Speaker's sanction, that is mandatory , was not taken".

He reiterated that the then Government had not fulfilled its legal obligation of obtaining permission from the Speaker of the Legislative Assembly, of which D.K. Shivakumar was a member. Now, the Cabinet found the sanction unlawful and the procedure to withdraw the same will follow by way of Government orders in this regard, he added.

Incidentally, Shivakumar was not present at the Cabinet meeting when the issue came up. The CBI is currently investigating DKS for possessing assets worth Rs. 74.93 crore, which is disproportionate to his known sources of income, during 2013-2018.

It may noted that recently, the Karnataka High Court refused to quash the CBI case registered against D.K. Shivakumar.

Heritage Maharani's College crumbles day-by-day

Mysuru, Nov. 24 (MK&BS)- Maharani's Science College for Women on JLB Road in the city, a prominent heritage building in cultural capital Mysuru, may soon fade into oblivion if no emergent steps are taken to restore the structure.

The building with 107-year-old history is crumbling at places with the walls in dilapidated condition and the ceiling collapsing at places and roots of plants making its way through the crevices on walls, triggering anxious moments among students.

It has been over a year when the ceiling and walls on the either side (JLB Road to DC Office) of the laboratory of Chemistry Department at the College came crashing down on Oct.21, 2022. But, no steps are taken at least to repair the damaged portions, leaving both students and staff alike in a fix, with the strength of students alone touching 3,500 including B.Sc and M.Sc students.

Due to the non-availability of full-fledged laboratory, the quality of learning has also taken a beating, with the classes being conducted on Sundays too, to complete the pending syllabus.

This over a century-old building, constructed using lime and mortar, is crying for immediate attention due to the lack of periodic maintenance. Even though there is a break in rainy season warding off the fear of any danger for now, the increasing cracks on walls portend the possibilities of structure falling any time.

In his recent visit to the college, Chief Minister Siddharamaiah assured to restore the building and also build a hostel with a capacity to accommodate 2,000 students. The CM also informed that the Higher Education Department has been directed to take up renovation of Maharani's Science College for Women at an estimated cost of Rs. 51 crore and Maharani's Arts College at an estimated cost of Rs. 17 crore and the construction of hostel at an estimated cost of Rs. 99 crore.

Heritage expert Prof. N.S. Rangaraju expressed fears over the roots of the plants growing through the cracks on the walls, which should be removed at the earliest possible to avoid seepage of rain water.

Speaking to Star of Mysore, Principal of Maharani's Science College for Women Prof. M. Abdul Rehman said "Following the request, the CM has responded positively and the works are expected to be launched in two to three months. Even the local MLA has assured to lay foundation for the works at the earliest."

Give nutritious diet for TB patients: Union Minister Khuba

International Tuberculosis Conclave- 2023 held at JSS Medical College

Union Minister Bhagwanth Khuba, Suttur Seer Sri Shivarathri Deshikendra Swamiji and Puducherry Home Minister A. Namassivayam seen releasing e-souvenir CD during the International Tuberculosis Conclave held in city yesterday.

Mysuru, Nov. 24 (BLU&BS)- Bhagwanth Khuba, Union Minister of State for Chemicals, Fertilisers, New and Renewable Energy has said that the economically poor terminally ill patients suffering from tuberculosis (TB) can survive if nutrition rich diet is provided to them.

He was speaking after inaugurating International Tuberculosis Conclave-2023 on the theme 'Accelerating Progress Towards a TB-Free World: Innovations, Challenges and Solutions' organised by the Department of Community Medicine and Respiratory Medicine, JSS Medical College, Mysuru, JSS Academy of Higher Education and Research (JSS AHER), at its Sri Rajendra Auditorium in Shivarathreeshwara Nagar here yesterday.

Khuba said "Apart from medicine, the TB patients should be given nutritious diet as there are several cases of patients dying due to lack of nutritious food."

The Central Government has chalked out several programmes to eradicate TB and even such patients are provided with free medical facilities. The meaningful deliberations and interactions are essential to find out a solution that would be beneficial to these patients, advised Khuba.

The Centre has opened Jan Aushadhi Stores for the benefit of economically weaker sections of the society. In all, 1,856 types of drugs are available at these drug stores. The doctors should also prescribe patients to buy drugs available at these stores and the latter should also prefer these drugs. Unlike initial days, even the doctors are prescribing the drugs available at Jan Aushadhi stores, which is a good development, that would benefit economically poor people, added Khuba.

The Conclave organised by JSS Medical College is relevant but we have to focus on extensive study to face the challenges that crop up in the way of eradicating TB. The students should also be aware of researches conducted and required to be conducted in relation to TB. Post COVID-19 pandemic, several innovative researches are being conducted in the field of health, with technological innovations emerging from creativity, he said.

A. Namassivayam, Minister for Home, Electricity, Education, Industries and Commerce, Government of Puducherry, who presided over the conclave gave a call for effective implementation of Health Schemes introduced by Prime Minister Narendra Modi led Central Government to build 'TB Mukt Bharat'.

Suttur Seer Sri Shivarathri Deshikendra Swamiji, Dean of-Gandhi Medical College, Bhopal, Madhya Pradesh, Dr. Salil Bhargava, Executive Secretary of JSS Mahavidyapeetha Dr. C.G. Betsurmath, Pro-Chancellor of JSS AHER Dr. B. Suresh, Vice-Chancellor Dr. Surinder Singh, Registrar Dr. B. Manjunatha, Principal of JSS Medical College Dr. H. CESC contractors stage protest in city

Mysuru, Nov.24 (BLU&DM)- Alleging that the CESC authorities had failed to issue work orders for the installation of electric poles and transformers at places where farmers had illegally drawn power for their Irrigation Pumpsets (IP), electrical contractors staged a demonstration in front of CESC's Corporate Office at Hootagalli here yesterday.

Pointing out that CESC had invited a Rs. 235 crore tender for installation of electrical poles and transformers at places where farmers had drawn unauthorised power connection for their IP sets, the contractors alleged that though the KERC (Karnataka Electricity Regulatory Commission) had given budgetary approval, the authorities had failed to issue work orders until now. This has caused losses to the tune of Rs.150 crore to the contractors who had made all the necessary arrangements for executing the works, they contended.

Noting that the Energy Department has claimed that it had issued an order in this regard on Oct.23 itself, they alleged that CESC officials here refute receiving any written order. As such, the contractors are facing a crisis, they said. They also warned of a Statewide protest if they are not issued work orders immediately.

Electrical Contractors Association President H.N. Ramakrishna, Treasurer T.K. Praveen, office-bearers Manjunath, Siddu, Satish Reddy, Puttamadu and others were present.

WORD OF THE DAY

Laissez-faire

Pronunciation: less-ay-FAIR.
Meaning: Laissez-faire refers to an economic policy or doctrine that allows businesses to operate with very little interference from the government. Laissez-faire is also used as an adjective, as in "laissez-faire capitalism," and often figuratively used to mean "hands-off," as in "she took a laissez-faire approach to managing her employees."
Origin: The French phrase laissez faire literally means "allow to do," with the idea being "let people do as they choose." The origins of laissez-faire are associated with the Physiocrats, a group of 18th-century French economists who believed that government policy should not interfere with the operation of natural economic laws. (The actual coiner of the phrase may have been French economist Vincent de Gournay, or it may have been François Quesnay, who is considered the group's founder and leader). The original phrase was "laissez faire, laissez passer," with the second part meaning "let (things) pass." Laissez-faire, which first showed up in an English context in the first half of 19th century, can still mean "a doctrine opposing governmental interference in economic affairs," but it is also used in broader contexts in which a "hands-off" or "anything-goes" policy is adopted.

THE ODD WORD

Laetificate

To cheer up.

PHRASE OF THE DAY

Lame duck

Meaning: A person or thing that isn't properly able to function, especially one that was previously proficient.
Origin: The description of 'Lame duck' is often applied to politicians who are known to be in their final term of office, when colleagues and electors look toward a successor. It is also sometimes used to describe office-holders who have lost an election but have not yet left office. In recent years (as of 2006) both George W. Bush and Tony Blair, unable to see out further electoral victories, have been faced with such mutterings, for example: In May 2006, The Washington Post ran an article titled 'Bush's Political Capital Spent', including the opinion: "Such weakness has unleashed the first mutterings of those dreaded second-term words, 'lame duck'." In April 2006, The [London] Times ran an article titled: "Is Blair a 'lame-duck' Prime Minister?"
